

SIRIUS – SMALL TABLE

DESIGN BY ANDREI MUNTEANU

The original and sophisticated three-legged side table Sirius makes its début in the living area, designed by the Architect Andrei Munteanu during his first collaboration with MisuraEmme. A slender and shiny silhouette in gold nickel plated metal, exalted by three tubular legs arranged in a triangle. These legs support a lowered tray featuring a marble top. Munteanu's Sirius presents itself like a delicate touch upon contemporary living spaces, combining stylistic innovation and meticulous workmanship.
